Alcorn State Braves

Head Coach Larry Smith

Former Golden State Warriors player Larry Smith was named the new men's head basketball coach at Alcorn State University in May 2008.

Smith, a former Alcorn State player (1976-1980) was SWAC Player of the Year ('79 and '80). As a senior he led all Division I players in rebounding and it was his tenacious attitude in the paint that earned him the nickname "Mr. Mean." A tireless rebounder, Smith received NBA All-Rookie First Team honors and became the first rookie since the legendary Kareem Abdul-Jabbar to finish among the top three rebounders in one season, when he averaged 12.1 boards per game.

Dwight Alexander
Assistant Coach

Smith went on to a career in the NBA as a player from 1980-1993. In addition to Golden State, he had stints with Houston and San Antonio.

Brian Adams
Assistant Coach

As a coach, he was most recently an assistant for the Los Angeles Sparks of the WNBA, Smith also spent ten seasons as an assistant coach with the Houston Rockets, helping them win consecutive NBA titles in 1994 and 1995.
